Negron Order

All Board members present signed the Final Board Order.

Proposed Rules and Regulations

Dr. Zickafoose reported no new updates.

APRN COMMITTEE

Dr. Castaldo reported the APRN committee was rescheduled for March 18, 2019. There were 137 independent applications approved in all 4 of the APRN roles with no disciplinary actions. Of the 2,019 APRNs licensed in Delaware, seven percent have been granted independent practice. Dr. Castaldo announced that he will be attending the NCSBN Mid-Year meeting at the end of March as well as the NCSBN APRN Forum and Roundtable meeting in April.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Dr. Williams announced that the Delaware Nursing Summit is scheduled for May 15, 2019. Lt. Governor, Bethany Hall-Long, PhD, RN will share successful initiatives in Delaware to achieve health for all. The summit is free of charge and there will be continuing education contact hours available.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Dr. Zickafoose stated she attended the NLC Summit in Dallas, TX and announced there are 31 states that have adopted the NLC. She shared the advisory opinion with four statements regarding single-state versus multi-state licensure. Dr. Zickafoose reported 67 percent of all licensees in Delaware have a multi-state license.

Dr. Zickafoose stated she attended the IRE Committee meeting on March 6th. There are 23 persons in the IRE fellowship program and they will need to complete the program by the end of August this year.

Dr. Zickafoose reported the February renewals (1,887) have concluded and the audit for this group will begin after April 30th. The May renewal notices (1,938) were distributed and 18,536 renewal notices will be released in July for the September renewal. Dr. Castaldo asked about the process for retiring nurses. Dr. Zickafoose explained the process and the options available.

Dr. Zickafoose shared the most recent updates on NLC legislation. Legislation for Indiana and New Jersey carried the first Senate Chamber. Legislation has been introduced in Massachusetts and Vermont, and Washington's Senate Bill did not pass. There are currently eight active bills this year.

Dr. Zickafoose read a report regarding the APRN Task Force which will be discussed at the Mid-Year meeting. Dr. Zickafoose thanked Mr. Salati and Ms. Darling for their time and service to the Board of Nursing. She announced three new members on the Board, Marlo Silverio, RN Member; Sandra Glenn-Vernon, At Large RN; and Danielle Gomez, At Large RN, which we should expect to see at the next Board meeting in April.
